

Press release / invitation

LGBT (lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender) in Myanmar: *Their stories and their dreams

September 25, 5 pm until 7 pm. Prime Hill Business Square

Entrance drinks and food for free

We invite you to visit the public presentation of 2 new communication products realised by the LGBT community of Myanmar:

The Rainbow Agenda Myanmar gives an overview of the goals of the LGBT community in Myanmar for the coming years. Short introductions by organisers and Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

The Documentary *Love and other matters show the lives of 7 LGBT's living in Myanmar. It tells personal stories in great diversity, about the most human aspects of us all: the desire to love, be loved and be accepted.

The Rainbow Agenda Myanmar is realised with the help of the LGBT community. Interviews are held with various LGBT activist and networks. A PDF of the Rainbow Agenda Myanmar will be available in the week before the presentation. If you are interested: please mail us (see below). It will also be handed out on September 25 and it will be published in Rainbow Magazine later this year.

The Documentary Love and other matters (38 minutes) is made by Yangon Film Services (director Su Su Hlaing). Later this year and next year, this documentary will be shown at various film festivals in Myanmar, like the &PROUD film festival in Yangon (November 13–15, 2015). September 25 will be the premiere of the full documentary. Come and see!

This project is a collaboration between Document Our History Now, Colors Rainbow and Yangon Film Services, with the financial support of the Kingdom of the Netherlands. You are very welcome.
